I think the committee's proposals about making the estt permanent and pensionable ~~Strength~~ maybe approved As regards the Supdt Mr Subbrosamy Iyer there is no doubt that he has been doing excellent work and deserves every considera-tion. It is to be hoped that he will continue to give satis-faction and be ~~fit~~ physically fit to be retained in service even after he is 55 years of age till he earns a pension.

Resolution ~~Exemption~~ from the operation of art 341(a) M&R would be premature, but when he actually retires, Govt may well take into account the services rendered by him & grant him a special pension somewhat higher than what he would be strictly entitled to under the rules owing to his ~~late~~ entertainment in service at an advanced age

A note of the Commutee's good opinion of his work and an indication that Govt will in due course be prepared to consider the grant of a special pension, ~~still~~ ought I think to be enough at present, in addn to rendering his appt permanent and pensionable

I entirely concur in the above remarks recorded by the Secretary. Order may issue accordingly.

Dy C 503/7308 The recommendation to make the Staff permanent & pensionable may be sanctioned. The exemption from the operation of art 341 A in the case of Mr Subbaswamy Iyer cannot be granted. He must abide by the rules of the M S Regulations. The question of a higher pension to him can only be considered at the time of his retirement.

Submitted to His Highness

In April 1906 the Inspector General of Education submitted for sanction, a recommendation made by the Committee of the Government Industrial School, Mysore, to place the staff of the school on the permanent establishment and to make their services pensionable The Comptroller, Mr Basu, pointed out that the charges of the Industrial School were not from "Local Funds General", and that, before deciding to make the staff permanent and pensionable, it should first be considered whether the Government were prepared to set aside sufficient funds out of the assets of the "Local Funds General" to meet the pension charges Government thereupon directed that in view of the cost involved, the proposal should "wait some time longer till the school was well established on a stable basis"

Paper under Disposal

The Committee of the school has again considered the matter and has repeated the recommendation that the staff should be made permanent and pensionable, as, in the opinion of the Committee, the school has been established on a stable basis The present recommendations are that the Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, Writers and Drawing Masters of the school be placed on the permanent establishment of the school and their services taken to qualify for pension, and that the Maistries and teachers of the general education classes may be placed on the permanent establishment after ten years' approved service, on the recommendation of the Committee, their services from the commencement being taken in that case as qualifying for pension

The Inspector General considers the recommendations of the Committee to be reasonable, and requests that they may be sanctioned

Both the Councillors approve of this being done These proposals may be sanctioned The pension charges on this account will not be large and may be borne from Provincial funds, as it is not desirable to set apart any portion of the Local Funds General for this purpose

The Committee also recommends that Mr Subbasami Iyer, the present Superintendent, who joined service when he was 16 years of age be exempted from the operation of article 341(a) of the Mysore Service Regulations, under which the pension of an officer who begins service after the age of 30, is subject to certain deductions

I do not however think that any such exemption can be granted The question of a higher pension than he would be entitled under the rules can only be considered when he actually retires

From

H J BHABHA, ESQ M A,

Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To C S Balasundaram Tyer Esq BA, Offg Secretary to the Govt of H H,
the Maharaja of Mysore, General and Revenue Deptt, Bangalore

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that the Managing Committee of the Mysore Industrial School met on the 13th of January 1908 and discussed the question of placing the members of the staff of the School on the permanent establishment and treating their services as counting towards pension. The Committee repeats its recommendation contained in resolution No 2 of the proceedings of its meeting which was held on 1905 which an extract was forwarded to Government with this office No. $\frac{8371-2}{510}$ dated 13th April 1906 The Committee adds however that in addition to the Superintendent, assistant Superintendent and writers, the Drawing master also may be placed on the permanent establishment and his services made pensionable with effect from the date of his entertainment in the School The present writer was for about 8 years in pensionable service as an assistant master of the Anglo-Vernacular School, Vepdature before he was brought to the School Syed Hussein the Machine Instr entered service in the School when it was first started in the year 1892 and claims pension from date of entertainment He is the only instructor that is left in the School out of the old staff The Committee further recommends in the case of the Superintendent that in consideration of the efficient manner in which he has discharged his duties, he be exempted from the operation of Article 341(a) of the Service Regulations, which reduces the pension of an officer who begins service after the age of thirty years, Mr. Subbasami Iyer, the Superintendent having been nearly 46 years of age when he entered service in the Industrial School. In the case of other Instructors and Teachers of the General Education Branch the Committee proposes that they may be made permanent after an approved service of 10 years on the recommendation of the Committee, their services from the commencement being taken in that case as qualifying for pension

2 I consider that the recommendations of the Committee are reasonable and request that Government may be pleased to sanction them at their earliest convenience. Government were pleased to remark in their Order No 7317-8/Edn 311-06-8 dated 22nd/25th February 1907 that "In view of the cost involved the proposal must wait sometime longer till the School is well established on stable basis" The Committee thinks that the School has been established on a stable basis and I concur with it in its opinion. The School has been steadily improving under the able Superintendence of Mr. Subbasami Iyer and turning out useful [redacted] Subbasami Iyer also deserv[redacted] the Civil Commission, recommendation of the Committee in regard to his being exempted from the operation of Article 314(a) of the Service Regulations. The recommendation of the Drawing Master has also to be favourably considered. He is an unusually capable drawing master. Unless there is hope of good pay and prospects of pension, really capable men cannot be induced to take up the work of drawing master. The Committee's recommendations in the case of the other masters and teachers of the General Education Branch to place them on the pensionable list after ten years of satisfactory service are also reasonable and I request that they may be sanctioned.

3 Extracts from the Proceedings of the Committee dated 2nd November 1905 and 13th January 1908 are appended to this letter together with 2 lists, one showing the names and designations of the members of the staff who will have to be made permanent with effect from the dates of their entertainment, and another have been recommended to be made permanent after an approved service of 10 years
